

Piano Lessons

Please contact Mrs. Jones to see if she has availability. mjones@schoololl.com

I'm excited that you have chosen piano lessons as part of your child's weekly routine.

My parents signed me up for piano lessons when I was in third grade, and I'm so glad they did. It completely opened my eyes to the world of music and made me excited about other musical opportunities as I continued through high school and college.

LESSON SCHEDULE: Lessons are once a week for a half hour on a set schedule.

COST: Lessons are $30 for a half hour lesson. Lessons are paid monthly on the first lesson of the month. There is no charge if your lesson lands on a planned day off of school or holiday. Lessons can be paid for in cash, check or venmo @molly-jones-92.

MAKEUP LESSONS: There are no make up lessons due to tight scheduling. If there is 24 hour notice, your child is sick or there is an unplanned school closing, you will be credited for that lesson the following month. There are no lesson credits for no shows or last minute cancellations and you will be charged for the lesson.

BOOKS: I usually purchase the books for students and add the amount to your next month's total as needed. You are welcome to order the books on your own. I use the Bastien Piano Series. I do not upcharge for books. The cost for a set of books is around $28.

PERFORMANCES: We will have two recitals during the year; one in December and one in May. Those days are still to be determined.

SUMMER: Summer lessons are optional. Students that continue lessons throughout the summer will get first priority for scheduling in the fall.
